Nuts and Bolts: Connecting Court-Involved Individuals to Treatment under the Affordable Care Act (ACA)

County stakeholders are encouraged to attend as teams, particularly those working with or planning to work on the continuum of care:

- Corrections
- Probation
- County Administrators
- Law Enforcement
- Courts
- District Attorney
- Judges
- Public Defender
- Pretrial Services
- Healthcare and behavioral health providers

Friday, February 21, 2014 (9 a.m. - 4 p.m.)

The third session in our healthcare series, Nuts and Bolts: Connecting Court-Involved Individuals to Treatment under the Affordable Care Act (ACA), is designed to provide those working in the criminal justice system with specific strategies and detailed examples for connecting justice-involved individuals to treatment.

This session offers diverse county perspectives and focuses on three main areas, including:

- Guidance for improving access to care;
- Policy decisions impacting eligibility, enrollment and liability; and
- Jail and community-based case studies.
